

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Darwin

Saltbush Social Enterprises is a not-for-profit organisation leading the way in providing responsive and outcome focused services particularly to disadvantaged and at-risk Indigenous people and their families.

At Saltbush we pride ourselves on integrating constructively with multiple stakeholders as part of the Australian and Northern Territory movement for positive social and economic change. Our current programs include Bail Supported Accommodation for youth, Vocational Training and Employment Centres (VTEC) Back on Track Program and Low Intensity Mental Health Services.

Based in Darwin, we have a rare opportunity for an experienced senior manager to lead, drive and grow the dedicated service delivery teams of our sites across the Northern Territory.

The role of Chief Operating Officer (COO) is focused on managing the operations of the organisation through a demonstrated ability to lead teams and promote quality improvement within a best practice approach.

As part of the executive management team, the COO will participate in long-term strategic planning and assist in developing the operational strategies to attain organisational goals.

The COO is also responsible for developing and executing the human resources strategy in support of the overall business plan and strategic direction of Saltbush.

This role will suit a skilled manager with proven strategic leadership experience, along with demonstrated stakeholder engagement and strong people management and human resources expertise who can continue to drive a culture of collaboration and accountability.

We are looking for a dynamic, energetic, highly organised professional who is commercially oriented with experience in actively managing budgets and contracts.

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated with the successful candidate.
