

11055NAT Course in Mentoring for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Workforce Mentors

ABOUT THIS COURSE

This qualification reflects the role of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce mentors who mentor Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees with little or no work experience to retain gainful employment.

The role has three essential outcomes:

- normalising the work experience of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander new workers;
- facilitating the navigation of barriers to work retention, the building of skills for job resilience and support to maintain work attendance; and
- being a cultural bridge - growing an employer's cultural appreciation and understanding of the life and transformative experiences of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees with little or no work experience.

COURSE DETAILS

Duration:	6 months
Delivery Method:	Online study, self-paced, live tutorials
Awarded by:	Karen Sheldon Training RTO No: 70045
Recognition:

ELIGIBILITY

Course candidates must identify as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander and must be supported by a local referee who can attest that the candidate is known and respected in their local community.

A pre-enrolment interview to establish suitability to undertake the course and to determine support requirements will also be conducted.

COURSE UNITS

NAT11055001	Apply mentoring to empower Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workers new to the work experience
NAT11055002	Facilitate effective mentoring relationships
NAT11055003	Collaborate with stakeholders of the mentoring relationship
CHCPRP003	Reflect on and improve own professional practice
CHCDIV001	Work with diverse people